First nothing, nothing can be destroyed. Please understand, none of your actions, thoughts, plans, emotions, words, nothing can be destroyed. Everything is addition to existence. Every moment, every one of our thoughts, words, actions, everything just go on gets added to existence. 10,000 years ago, what Rishis were doing on the banks of Saraswati is still available in the cosmic archives as if it is happening now. Please understand 60,000 years before, what human beings were doing in bank of Ganges civilization is available as if it is happening now with the 4D clarity, not just 3D, but 4D clarity. Nothing can be destroyed in the world. Everything, everything is stored.

Akashic Records are the cosmic archives of everything happened, happening, will happen.

One more important sacred secret you need to understand, time is not three, as you think, past, present, future. It is the small mind which cannot see things as it is which constantly needs to segregate, segregate, segregate.

For example, if you keep a fruit basket on the table. Ordinarily if you look, you will look in one moment, and you know it is a fruit basket and 5 different fruits are there. But for a child, it cannot grasp the whole thing immediately. It says, first oh banana, then mango, pineapple, apple. It can understand, only one by one by one. Same way the past, present future, in Sanskrit we call it kaala. Only a ignorant mind, which cannot grasp, perceives as past, present future. But in truth it is not 3 different things. An enlightened beings sees kaala as one, one entity, one experience, one reality. Continuously wise men all over the world again and again in all religions repeat this one truth - 'History repeats itself.

Understand the patterns are same. So it is not even repeating, it is re-beating. The whole life is certain rhythm with certain beats. That rhythm is continuously moving. Even the word repeating is not the right word. Re-beating is the right word. History is constantly re-beating itself, because past is not independent of future and future is not independent from the past. They are just single unit.

Your inner most consciousness can just experience all three at a time. Simply it can experience all three at a time. Past, present, future, all these 3 are just the very integral part of your inner space. When your consciousness lean towards past it is caught in greed. when it lean towards future it is caught in fear. When it is sitting with the present, it is inspired. Please understand, when it moves towards the future, it is caught in fear, that is why it jumps to greed. Fear is the wound, greed is the medicine. When greed is the wound, fear is the medicine. Fear heals greed. Greed heals fear. Fear reduces greed and greed reduces fear. Greed reduces the fear and brings you back to the reality and greed reduces the fear and brings you back to reality.

Past present, future, all three are one entity, one existence, one unity. Just with the consciousness which does not get stuck in the fear or in the greed, you can see the whole. You can see the whole. Please understand, you can see the whole. Past, present, and future. I will give you a very simple, very simple understanding. As of now each one of you will be having some fears about the future, some desire about the future. Constantly your inner mind will be projecting, your fears are going to be your reality. But your desires are saying, no, no your desires should become your reality. So now leave both. Leave the fight to your fears and desires. You just back, back out in the fight without supporting fear or desires. Please understand, if you just distance yourself from your fears or desires. Even now just distance yourself. back out, and look at the future without any of the projections. You will simply be able to see, your past, your present, your future all three of them does not have water tight compartment separation or boundary walls. It is just one flowing into the another. When I say five dimensional, I mean any incident as it has happened including the smell that was there at that moment. The smell, and the feeling of touch means the weather, temperature, the visual, sound and the emotion all five dimensions are packed and recorded in the Akashic Records.

Please understand, just like a film in the camera captures, 2 dimension of visualization and verbalization. In the video camera, visualization and verbalization both are captured. Same way the film in the cosmos is a space, in the space, all five dimensions, sound, visuals, smell, taste and touch all five dimensions of whatever is happening is continuously getting recorded.

As the future is nothing but the extension of the past, the future is also pre determined. The major course of the future is pre determined. Please understand, in the past people were, in India people were sitting on the floor having plates and eating with hands, idli, the old breakfast. Then now, people sit on the dining table use the spoons and forks maybe eating pizza. In the future, they may be sitting some where, eating something, using something. That may change in future. But they were eating only through mouth in the past, now also only through mouth, in the future also they will be eating only through mouth. That cannot be changed. So the major things in the past or in the present or in the future cannot be changed. Please understand, when I utter the word, future is pre determined realize the freedom in you. Don't be frustrated. All the frustrating parts of your past can be changed. Only the components and parts which puts you in restful awareness are pre determined. Let me describe more clearly.

The past which affects you with fear and greed always have a possibility for innovation. If you are affected by the fear of a snake, or greed of something, those things can be changed in your future because that is not reality, but there is something which is reality which always puts you in restful awareness. That cannot be changed. Let me give you one example, from Vedanta. I know I am talking about very subtle concepts, very subtle truths. If you are a new person, new visitor and it is too much for you, I sincerely apologize. But the subject Akashic records is too big subject, I have to reveal the truths. Please understand, in the dark night you are walking in a forest alone, a rope is lying on your way, the moment you see first thing, naturally you will have the fear stroke, it may be snake. At least for few seconds you will be in that mood, it is snake. And most of us our eyes have so much of power, it will show as if that end of the rope is moving, little bit. That is the power of our eyes. So you will have the fear stroke. In few minutes if you observe that rope very closely, strongly, intensely, suddenly you will realize, no it is not snake, it is just ordinary rope lying then you will just settle down, relax. First the impact happening on you, that fear. The second the realization of you relaxing into restful awareness. So these two components are there in this whole incident. This falling back into the restful awareness can't be changed. Even in future, the restful awareness is reality. That does not change in the past or in the present or in the future. When I say future is pre determined, I mean the component of the restful awareness is predetermined. You have to fall back on the restful awareness. So be free you have no suffering. No incident in your future can destroy you. You have to fall back on the restful awareness. It is predetermined destiny of every being. But the component of this fear can be changed instead of the fear of the snake, you may superimpose alligator on that rope. If it is a big rope, with few stones around, few leaves placed around, you can project an alligator instead of snake. So the possibility of the projection is the changeable part of your future. and the possibility of falling back on the restful awareness is predetermined part of your future. When Enlightened Masters say, future is predetermined, they are saying the truth. When enlightened Masters say future can be changed, can be altered, they are saying the truth. Please understand, when enlightened masters are saying future cannot be altered, it is predetermined, they are saying the truth. When enlightened masters are saying future can be altered, it is your freedom, they are saying the truth. When enlightened masters are saying both are truth they are saying truth.

Discover Akashic Records in your DNA

The Akashic records are, it's like a password being handed over to you. All the information are there. This is the password; please see it; that's all. The Akashic records are like DNA of the universe. Each soul has its own Akashic records and there are collective records of all souls of all journeys. That's what I call, all souls of all journeys is what I call Hiranyagarbha. So now I will add some of my insights. First thing understand, all the information you collected through all your births is available in your DNA.

Second, you can access some of them just to understand and not to waste the time doing the same actions again and again thinking you will have the joy end of this action. So it's like as if you have done certain action and you did not receive the joy which you wanted and if you forget that you did that action and did not have the joy, you will be trying it again and again in various ways. But if you remember you did this action, did not have the joy, you will not try it again; you will not waste your time on it again.

So accessing DNA code, reading Akashic record will be useful in that way for you to become Enlightened, not to waste your time on the foolish things which you are trying to do again and again and again. For example fighting with the Master; you know end of the day I am only going to win. And even if I let you win means you are losing the whole game. That is why I am just letting you win or feeling that you are winning. This is one of the major foolishness. But if you have the access to Akashic record even once or twice, if you have access to the past once or twice through your DNA, suddenly you will be awakened. "O God! How many time I will be doing this same foolishness? Eh it is time." Start living, doing and no making decision. You will learn the art of surrender. You will learn the art of surrender in your practical life.

How to Control Time!

From the pure space of Kalabhairava, ... Paramashiva is revealing all these great truths to the world. Please listen and internalize. All the, all these truths are independently powerful and capable to make your consciousness into super consciousness.

Your consciousness is the seed, it is a possibility. If you understand these great truths, it can flower into super consciousness. The seed is waiting to flower, to achieve its completion and fulfillment. Listen and cognize these truths, you will achieve completion and fulfillment, ultimate enlightenment. Listen. The first truth. Kala (काल, Kāla) ... continuously meets your consciousness now, now, now.

So the mood of your body, your mind, your physiology, your psychology you keep now, plays a very important role in your whole life. If you keep the now incompleteness or hopes, that will continue forever. If you keep the now in the completion and clarity, that'll manifest forever. Kala does not meet your consciousness in the past or in the future. He meets your consciousness now, in the present. So, again and again, during your present moment be in the space of completion. Learn to bring completion to yourself, restful awareness to yourself now.

And, do not have guilt or worry if you have the influence of the past and influence of the future on present now. Guilt or fear is a one more incompleteness, that is not going to help. So not engaging with guilt, not engaging with fear, unclutching with fear, incompleteness, guilt, is the right attitude. Understand, the official attitude towards incompleteness, towards guilt, towards fear is unclutching. And, all the further manipulation of fears, if you unclutched life will become worst. All those fears are manipulation of fears. All those multi-level fears do not have the real existence. They are delusion, constantly invading your inner space to destroy the possibility of enlightenment. Please understand. Anyone who comes to simple awareness, stops behaving agitated, immature, rough ... like multiple personality. All these layered fears - fear, guilt, powerlessness, incompleteness, all layered.

Please understand. This is the Deva Rahasya. They all do not have influence over your present moment. This present moment you meet the consciousness, consciousness meets Kala directly.

So, any practice you do in the present moment, for example, you declare completion. Immediately even two thousand years of incompleteness has no power over you. This is Deva Rahasya, understand. This Deva Rahasya can empower the truth in you just like that. You can manifest Paramashiva now! Only thing don't become arrogant. Don't become arrogant. When this truth was given to Brahma, He became Paramashiva, He became one with Paramashiva, but unfortunately He could not maintain Himself in that state. He started developing arrogance and started abusing Shiva and Guru. Paramashiva whose gave this truth to Brahma as Guru. He started abusing the Guru, thinking that He knows the whole business trick or trick of the trade or the whole thing. Then Kalabhairava manifests and removes his one head and makes Him understand the truth, ultimate and again ... gives Him back the Parabrahma space, and Brahma continues to do His responsibility of creation. Understand, Kalabhairava is eternal compassion, eternal love. Whenever you express love even in simple acts like giving a smile, giving a sweet hug, without calculating even simple act you do, the strength you feel is Kalabhairava's strength. It is Kalabhairava's strength.

moment you understand this, your Third Eye will open up.

Extreme compassion, extreme joy, extreme ecstasy ... brings intense powerfulness and strength in you. Just ... go on be sharing smile and love to anything you see. Hug anything you see. If you don't have any object in front, hug the air. You will build strong body and heavy muscles like Kalabhairava. Listen. Listen to this Deva Rahasya. Look everything you see with love. Hug everything you see, including the air. You will build healthy, powerful, heavy body and grounded being, super conscious flowering. Sannyasa is seeing everything you see through love, hugging everything you see. One with everything you see - people, objects, ... animate or inanimate. In the Cosmos, there is no inanimate. In Kāla, there is no inanimate. It is a space where ... the Big Bangs and Black Holes, planets, suns and stars and moons evolve, ... billions of years exist and dissolve spontaneously, simultaneously without gap. Billions of years without gap. Meditate on it. Meditate on it. Meditate on it. It is Deva Rahasya. The
