Abstract

The first priority and only priority is to make you Sadāśiva, to give you the conscious breakthrough - that is 'THE' purpose.

Through this course, receive the super conscious breakthrough just by listening -

1. State of Sadāśiva means complete completion, unclutched space, integrity and authenticity
2. "Space of Sadāśiva" – Ishvaratv manifesting, responsibility and being a lead for other beings to move to the Sadāshivatva.
3. When you decide to be leader and lead people towards Sadāshivatva, Sadāśiv empowers you with all His powers.

Stambhini Shakti – Power of stability and firmness like a pillar, to be integrated to achieve 'shivatva', even in unfavorable situations

The Shakti by which the foremost sadhaka is rendered to be steadfast in his path, with integrity and to be like a fixed pillar is known as 'Stambhini'. Even when he is troubled by unexpected occurrence of obstacles or afflicted with dispositions such as likes and dislikes, he remains unperturbed and is capable of observing all the austere activities which are to be undertaken after diksha. Matanga Parameshwara Agama, 5 śaktivicāra, prakaraṇam, Reflection on the nature of Shakti.

When You Lead People to Sadāshivatva, You Are Empowered by Sadāśiva With all the Powers

Just by listening breakthrough can happen in your Consciousness, you can start opening up, you can start manifesting.

The first priority and only priority is to make you Sadāśiva, to give you the conscious breakthrough - that is 'THE' purpose. And Universe by its nature wants to have continuous breakthroughs; expansion is Universe. Expansion is Universe the quality of the causeless expansion. There is no withdrawal in life; it is all only expansion, expansion, expansion, expansion, expansion. That quality of continuous expansion is called Sadāśiva.

State of Sadāśiva means complete completion, unclutched space, integrity and authenticity - all that forms the state of Sadāśiva.

“Space of Sadāśiva” – Ishvaratva, manifesting, responsibility and being a leader for other beings to move to the Sadāshivatva. Then comes, manifesting powers of Sadāśiva.

When you decide to be leader and lead people towards Sadāshivatva, Sadāśiva empowers you with all His powers. When you have put everything to use, then He gives more. All power manifestation is for the sake of serving Sadāśiva. When you lead people to Sadāshivatva, you are empowered by Sadāśiva with all the powers.

Add Four Tattvas To Manifest Sadāśiva

The manifest and unmanifest components of Sadaśiva is part of you. The manifest is Sadyojatam, Tatpurusham, Aghoram, Vamadevam, Ishanam.—creation, maintenance, destruction, delusion and liberation.

When you are in the mode of creation, add Integrity to you—you will manifest Sadaśiva.

“What is creation mode?”

When you feel like doing something active. It can be your office work, it can be manifesting wealth, it can be doing something for name and fame, including career activities. Or it can be physically creating something; art, painting, drawing, —all this belongs to creation when you are in the creation mode, bring Integrity to you, you will manifest Sadaśiva—your creativity plus integrity is Sadāśiva’s creation energy, is Sadyoyata.

Maintenance, sustenance, bring Authenticity to your sustenance. Anything, which loses Authenticity, starts collapsing, and it needs to collapse. The earlier it collapses is good for the humanity.

Whenever you are in a destructive mood, bring Responsibility. You will never destroy what should not be destroyed. You will always destroy what need to be destroyed immediately. With Responsibility, destruction will be equal to rejuvenation, not just destruction.

First principle of becoming Sadaśiva. The first principle is integrity. It needs to be understood. The first level of integrity only is the thought current you are cherishing with you and others, treating it as life.

Manifesting powerless cognition is inauthenticity, manifesting constantly powerful cognitions is authenticity. You can say, “If my third eye is open, if I am able to roll coconut, I can roll any matter, I can move any matter, means, my third eye is open. How did it get open? By connecting it to the universal third eye of Sadaśiva... If I am connected to Universal third eye of Sadaśiva then this whole universe, the whole matter is under me."

Human being is a possibility to travel in both directions. If you are going to go on manifesting powerless cognitions every day, you practice in authenticity. If you go on manifesting powerful cognitions every day, you manifest authenticity. Authenticity redefined.

“State is the bow, the action of putting the arrow, on the string and pulling it back, is creating space and releasing it to go and manifest the reality you want, is manifesting powers.

When Sadāśiva takes responsibility, he flows as Shakti.

Only when the responsibility sun rises and you decide to take the responsibility, the vatavarana, the ambience of responsibility, decision to be responsible, melts that Shava and flows as Shakti - makes you Shiva.

It is responsibility that makes Shava into Shakti, ultimately Shiva. The vatavarana of responsibility makes Shaktipata happen in you and makes you Shiva.

Unit of life is responsibility; based on the responsibility you cognize, powers are manifested in you... understand, not a cheating. In responsibility also you have a inner image responsibility separate, outer image responsibility separate. Outer image responsibility is – “Everyone should become Sadashivatva.”!!! tchtchtchtchtch Inner image responsibility, “Let’s have a big beach house and vacation house and sleeppppp [swamiji makes gestures of tired look]. Taking rest is a preventive method to stop being affected by the disease of chronic fatigue “So before the tiredness disease attacks me, let me take preventive measurement of taking rest.”

Fundamentally the purpose of the life, not just human life, is to manifest Pindanda to Brahmanda. Macrocosm to microcosm. One cell amoeba to Mahasadashiva. See whichever part you are in this long journey, you maybe just having physical growth, or having physical and psychological growth or physical and psychological conscious growth or, whatever level you maybe there in this whole journey - supporting other beings in this journey is enriching.

Wherever you are in this long journey, helping others, enriching others is a spiritual practice. Causing others' reality is a spiritual practice. Even in life, whether you want more energy in the body - health, more resources in your life - wealth, more beings to live together for your love, to share your love, give and receive - relationships, fundamental principle is coming to conclusion to enrich and cause. Only if you decide to enrich and cause, energy will start oozing in your life. Energy starts oozing in you, only when you decide to enrich. It expresses as health, it expresses as love, relationships, it expresses as resource in the life like wealth. What's the biggest wealth you know? Ability to relate with large number of people with love, it's the best wealth you can have, which will never leave you. Which will never leave you.

There is only two ways you can be wealthy.
The organic way of wealthening is, wealthy is, ability relate with multiple people with energy.
