What is this world made up of? Our five senses of sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch are our gateways to perceiving this world. They tell us that this world is made up of matter — objects in various forms, shapes, colors and qualities.

Assessment:

Learn about what you always wanted to know – what's out there in the Universe?

READING ASSIGNMENT: Part I, Jeevan Mukti Bhashya, Edition 1, Page 183-You Are Part of the Collective Consciousness

For best learning experience -Read first then come back to the assessments – then read again! You will see an enhanced learning experience, immediately*

Listening Assessment

1. What is the common understanding about what composes this universe as per modern science and revelations of the Upanishads?
2. How often does the Heisenberg's principle of observation influence our perception and emotions?
3. What do you understand by the physiology of perception? How does this explain the composition of the Universe?
4. Please list 5 scientific ways the 11 dimensions of the Universe revealed and explained in Hinduism can be substantiated and recorded.
5. What do you understand by chaos is order?

Intranalyzation Assessment: The cosmos is not just a force

Spend little time with yourself. Sit and pen down The cosmos is not just a force. It is 'force plus intelligence'. It responds to your thoughts, to your prayers, to your being - because it is intelligence. Once somebody asked Buddha, 'Who is the creator of this universe?' Buddha replied, 'The universe itself is its creator.

- How often during the reading of this guide did you experience this truth? Just when you were thinking/a thought / there was a response from the cosmos for you

- How often have you experienced miracles – just when you are thinking of a friend, they call to say hi! If you said yes, you should know almost 85% of the world experiences this! It's not a coincidence, it is a simple science of the cosmos

Expressing Assessment: Global Peace Begins From You

Now you understand that self contradictory thoughts are the reason for majority of fighting within our own selves. We are all caught in the web of these thoughts and our thoughts and words are so powerful they lead to global unrest.

Through this assessment – select one geographical area /local community/ where often there are prayers, chanting, temple rituals, or any meditation being practiced. Next, with the help of your local security area guide being facilitated by the authorities of the state, plot and graph or sketch the comparison of violence, crime rate, positivity, people happiness, GDP of this selected area, with 10 other areas of your interest. Start with a radius of 2-3 kilometers. You will be able to physically record the impact of thoughts.

Present to friends, community and share the pride!

In your brain, at least a trillion cells are there, connecting with trillions of planets, stars and in existence. When all the trillion cells are awakened, the whole Cosmos is experienced inside the body. The Brahmanda is experienced in Pindanda. Methods for awakening those trillions of cells vary.

Assessment:

Learn about what you always wanted to know – what's out there in the Universe?

READING ASSIGNMENT: Part III, Jeevan Mukti Bhashya, Edition 1, Aphorism Of Existence, Page 462 - 552

Listening Assessment

10. What scientific ways are used by the Bhagavān Veda Vyasa to awaken the brain cells? How does it compare to modern methods from neurology?
11. Where was the Saraswati civilization?
12. What is the Brahma Vidya Sampradaya?
13. Please list 5 scientific ways in which Hinduism awakens the brain cells? How has science substantiated these findings?
14. Take a few moments and learn about the great founding fathers and their contribution – Swami Gambhirananda, and Swami Vireswaranada. Present your findings in a way of 1 page abstract with their Darshan photograph and list of contributions to the scientific world.

Intranalyzation Assessment: Source and Origin Cannot Be Spoken

*Spend little time with yourself. Sit and pen down The practical part of life itself is aphorisms on Existence - Brahma Sūtrās. It is a basic need to exist. Just to exist, nothing else. If these aphorisms on Existence are imbibed as a basic decision-making mechanism in your system, the highest breakthrough in the human consciousness can happen. Life can radiate itself in its peak possible form on planet earth.*

Expressing Assessment: Brahman is Intelligence and that is the Source

Cause is intelligence. This is the base, but now, you have to arrive at the clarity. You can start the debate on this truth. Get to clarity, then the functionality will evolve. So today, whoever wants to declare their enlightenment, define, declare and start living up to it. Have a vakyartha sadas – a debate on why is the universe intelligence?
